3 Domestic Exhibitor's Comments & Suggestions

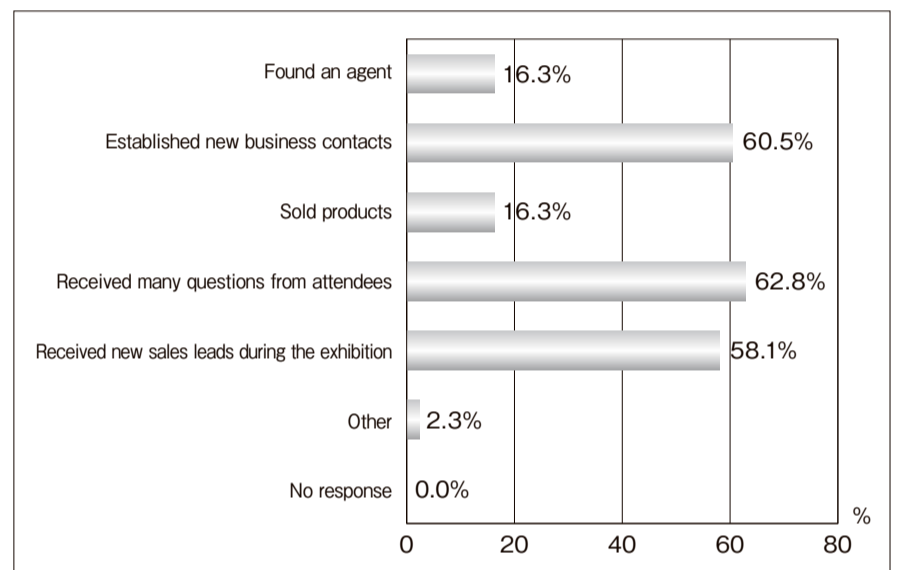

- We're so much appreciated as this exhibition is only opportunity for us to appeal our products every year.
- As this is the first exhibit for us, we were ready for many problems to happen though we had nothing. We are expecting more opportunities to support care givers.
- Continuation of this special exhibition is expected as it is superior and very valuable for both exhibitors and visitors.
- As the patrol staffs came around frequently, there was no major bothering problem such as big noises nor being blocked by neighboring demonstration.
- Exhibitors didn't have to warn each other, and it helped to improve atmospheres.
- We were able to participate in this exhibition even our application was in the last minute as the organizer supported us kindly.
- Everything went well and there was no problem.
- We are so much appreciated for giving us opportunities to explain our products to visitors at the presentation and obtained suggestions for future development and improvement of products.
- The organizer accepted our request to add cooperated firms to our joint booths after the application period. In case the condition would meet, we would like to participate again.
- No major problems and we are satisfied.
- Even though it was the first exhibition for us, it was so active and helpful.
- No other exhibition could gather such numbers of visitors.
